

Ezekiel 32:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

Analysis

There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude continues cataloging fallen nations in Sheol. Her graves are round about him describes burial. All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword repeats their fate. Though they caused their terror in the land of the living notes past power. Meshech and Tubal were regions in Asia Minor (modern Turkey), representing distant northern powers. Even remote nations don't escape divine judgment. Geographic distance provides no protection. God's sovereignty extends globally; His justice is universal. No nation is too remote, too powerful, or too secure to escape accountability. All must answer to the Creator.

Historical Context

Meshech and Tubal (Ezekiel 38:2-3; 39:1) were northern tribal groups later absorbed into various empires. Their inclusion demonstrates judgment's comprehensive scope—not just major powers but also minor kingdoms. Every nation, regardless of size or location, faces divine accountability. Geography doesn't exempt anyone from justice.
