

Ezekiel 35:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there:

Analysis

Edom's additional sin: claiming 'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine' when 'the LORD was there.' They sought to possess Israel and Judah's territory despite God's presence and ownership. Attempting to seize what belongs to God compounds arrogance with blasphemy. Divine ownership trumps human ambitions.

Historical Context

After 586 BC, Edom occupied southern Judah while Judeans were exiled. They assumed God had permanently abandoned His land and people. This theological error—thinking God's discipline meant abandonment—brought judgment.

Study Questions

1. How do you distinguish between God's temporary discipline and permanent abandonment?
2. What does it mean that God never truly abandons what belongs to Him, even during judgment?
