

Ezekiel 45:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

Analysis

Land division begins with a 'holy portion' set apart for the LORD—25,000 cubits by 10,000 (approximately 8.3 x 3.3 miles). Prioritizing sacred space teaches that God's dwelling and worship come first in national life. Land allocation reveals priorities. Setting apart the best for God demonstrates that He deserves first place, not leftovers.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern temples typically owned surrounding lands for support. This vision expands that concept—substantial territory dedicated exclusively to sacred purposes, demonstrating God's central place in restored Israel.

Study Questions

1. How do you prioritize God in your time, resources, and life planning?
2. What does it mean to give God the 'first fruits' rather than leftovers of your life?
