

Ezekiel 45:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah.

Analysis

And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah—Grain and oil accompany animal sacrifices: ('אֵפֶה, 'ephah'—about 22 liters) of flour per bull/ram, הַיּוֹן שְׁמֵן (hîn shemen, 'hin of oil'—about 3.8 liters) per ephah flour.

These measurements ensure proper proportions—worship done decently and in order (1 Corinthians 14:40). Grain offerings (מִנְחָה, minhâh) represented human labor; oil represented the Spirit. Together with animal sacrifice (blood atonement), they picture complete consecration: atonement (blood), service (grain), and Spirit (oil). New Testament believers offer lives (Romans 12:1), works (Hebrews 13:16), and Spirit-empowered service (Romans 15:16)—complete spiritual sacrifices.

Historical Context

Grain offerings (Leviticus 2, Numbers 15:1-16) always accompanied burnt offerings, with specified proportions. Oil mixed with flour represented richness and quality. Ezekiel's measurements match Mosaic prescriptions, showing continuity. The combination—blood, grain, oil—creates multisensory worship: sight, smell, taste. Ancient worship engaged whole persons, prefiguring New Testament worship 'in spirit and truth' (John 4:24) that engages entire being.
