

Ezekiel 46:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

Analysis

The prince would worship 'at the threshold of the gate' but not enter—he wasn't a priest. Even rulers worshiped with limitations, acknowledging distinctions in sacred roles. This teaches that leadership doesn't eliminate accountability or boundaries. Everyone, regardless of status, approaches God according to His prescribed order.

Historical Context

Some Israelite kings (Uzziah, 2 Chronicles 26:16-21) wrongly assumed royal status granted priestly privileges, bringing judgment. This vision's regulations prevent such presumption, maintaining proper distinctions.

Study Questions

1. How do you maintain appropriate boundaries and reverence in approaching God?
2. What does it mean that all believers have equal access to God through Christ (Hebrews 10:19-22) yet maintain appropriate reverence?
