

Hebrews 10:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

Analysis

Christ responds: 'Behold, I have come - in the volume of the book it is written of Me - to do Your will, O God.' This expresses Christ's incarnational purpose - perfect obedience to the Father's will. The 'volume of the book' refers to Scripture that testifies to Him (John 5:39). Reformed active obedience emphasizes that Christ not only died for our sins (passive obedience) but also lived perfect righteousness for us (active obedience), providing both forgiveness and positive righteousness.

Historical Context

The psalm continues David's theme of preferring obedience over sacrifice. Applied to Christ, it becomes His mission statement - He came to accomplish God's redemptive will through perfect obedience culminating in self-sacrifice.

Study Questions

1. How does Christ's active obedience (living righteously) contribute to your salvation beyond His death?
2. What does it mean that Christ came specifically 'to do Your will,' and how does this model Christian discipleship?
