

Hebrews 11:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

Analysis

Abraham 'sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country' living in tents with Isaac and Jacob who were 'heirs with him of the same promise.' Though God promised him the land, he lived as a foreigner never possessing it. This demonstrated faith that looked beyond earthly inheritance to heavenly reality. His pilgrim lifestyle testified that he sought something better than earthly possession.

Historical Context

Abraham lived in Canaan for 100 years without owning any of it except his burial plot (Genesis 23). This pilgrim existence distinguished faith from sight—he believed God's promise while living as an alien.
