

Hebrews 2:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

Analysis

'Captain' (Greek 'archegos') means pioneer, founder, or champion—one who blazes the trail others follow. God's sovereign purpose ('it became him') determined that Christ's perfection would come through suffering. 'Perfect' (Greek 'teleioo') means complete or qualified, not morally improved. Christ's sufferings qualified Him as the sympathetic High Priest who brings many sons to glory.

Historical Context

The concept of a suffering Messiah contradicted Jewish expectations of a conquering king. The author shows how Christ's sufferings were necessary to accomplish God's redemptive plan and enable Him to sympathize with His people.
