

Hebrews 3:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

Analysis

'Exhort one another daily' establishes the necessity of mutual encouragement in the Christian community. 'Today' (repeated from Psalm 95:7) emphasizes urgency—the present opportunity for repentance and faith. 'Deceitfulness of sin' (Greek 'apate tes hamartias') shows sin's deceptive nature, promising pleasure but delivering hardness. Hardening is progressive, making daily exhortation essential.

Historical Context

The communal nature of faith contrasts with modern individualism. First-century churches met daily (Acts 2:46), facilitating this mutual care and accountability.
