

Hebrews 5:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

Analysis

The author transitions with a rebuke: 'much to say and hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.' The Greek 'nōthroi' (dull/sluggish) indicates spiritual lethargy. This isn't about intellectual capacity but moral responsiveness. Reformed theology recognizes that spiritual truth requires spiritual receptivity wrought by the Spirit. Without diligent hearing, even clear truth becomes obscure.

Historical Context

The readers' spiritual regression is concerning - they should be advancing but have regressed. This suggests persecution or cultural pressure had weakened their commitment, making them unprepared for deeper teaching.
