

Hebrews 5:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

Analysis

Those on milk are 'unskilled in the word of righteousness' (Greek 'apeiros' - inexperienced) and are 'infants' (Greek 'nēpios'). This isn't about salvation status but maturity level. The 'word of righteousness' likely refers to gospel truth about justification and righteous living. Reformed theology distinguishes between positional righteousness (imputed) and progressive righteousness (sanctification), both learned through Scripture.

Historical Context

Infant Christians were particularly vulnerable in a hostile culture. The author wants them to mature quickly because persecution requires strong faith anchored in deep theological understanding.

Study Questions

1. What areas of biblical truth remain 'milk-level' in your understanding that should advance to 'solid food'?

2. How does spiritual immaturity leave you vulnerable to false teaching or cultural pressure?
