

Hebrews 5:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

Analysis

'Being made perfect' (Greek 'teleiotheis') means brought to completion or fully qualified for His mission, not moral improvement. 'Author of eternal salvation' (Greek 'aitios soterias aionias') designates Christ as the source and cause of salvation that lasts forever. Salvation is 'unto all them that obey him'—not earning salvation by obedience but evidencing genuine faith through obedient response.

Historical Context

The completion of Christ's earthly work through death, resurrection, and ascension qualified Him to be the eternal High Priest. His priesthood, unlike Aaron's, brings eternal rather than temporary salvation.
