

Hebrews 8:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

Analysis

Christ serves as 'minister of the sanctuary' (Greek 'leitourgos ton hagion'—servant of holy things) and 'of the true tabernacle.' This 'true tabernacle' was 'pitched' (established) by 'the Lord, and not man,' contrasting with Moses' man-made (though divinely patterned) structure. The earthly tabernacle was a copy; the heavenly is the reality. Christ ministers in the true, original sanctuary.

Historical Context

The tabernacle pattern shown to Moses (Exodus 25:9, 40) was a copy of heavenly realities. What Moses built in the wilderness was always meant to point to the eternal, heavenly sanctuary where Christ ministers.
