

Hosea 10:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

Analysis

Tribute to Assyria: 'It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.' The calves carried to Assyria as מינחה (minchah, gift/tribute) to king Jareb מלך יְהוָה, likely 'great king'). Result: Ephraim receives נזק (boshet, shame); Israel ashamed of אִתָּשָׁת (atsato, his counsel). This demonstrates that trusting created things rather than Creator produces shame. What they worshiped becomes tribute to enemies. Only Christ brings honor, not shame (Romans 10:11, 1 Peter 2:6).

Historical Context

Assyrian policy included plundering defeated nations' religious objects—both demonstrating gods' powerlessness and enriching Assyrian temples. Carrying Israel's calves to Assyria fulfilled this pattern. The 'shame' involves public humiliation: their gods proven powerless, their strategies failed, their counsels (political and religious) exposed as foolish. 'King Jareb' (8:9, 10:6) likely means 'great king,' Assyrian imperial title. Archaeological evidence confirms Assyrian practice of displaying conquered peoples' cult objects. This demonstrated that idols cannot save worshipers—instead becoming evidence of defeat and sources of shame.

Study Questions

1. How does seeing their idols carried off as tribute to enemies expose idolatry's foolishness?
2. What does being 'ashamed of own counsel' teach about the eventual exposure of all wisdom apart from God?
