

Hosea 6:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

Analysis

But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.' 'Like men' (ke-adam) might reference Adam's covenant breaking in Eden (Romans 5:12-19) or mean 'like mere humans' (expecting higher standard from covenant people). 'Transgressed covenant' (avaru brit) describes deliberate violation. 'Dealt treacherously' (bagdu) means betrayed trust - covenant infidelity. This connects Israel's sin with humanity's pattern: covenant breaking from Adam forward. Romans 5:19 contrasts: 'by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, by one man's obedience many will be made righteous.' Only Christ's perfect covenant keeping saves covenant breakers.

Historical Context

If 'Adam' refers to person (Genesis 2-3), this connects Israel's sin with original sin - same pattern of covenant rebellion. If Adam is place name (Joshua 3:16), it references specific location of Israel's covenant breaking. Either reading emphasizes deliberate treachery against God's covenant. Israel repeated Adam's sin: given divine law, they chose disobedience; given covenant relationship, they betrayed it. This universal pattern (all sinned, Romans 3:23) requires universal solution - Christ's atonement. His perfect obedience fulfills covenant requirements we violated.

Study Questions

1. How does my covenant breaking repeat Adam's pattern of choosing disobedience despite divine blessing?
2. In what ways does Christ's covenant faithfulness contrast with both Adam's and my covenant breaking, providing hope?
