

Hosea 7:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

Analysis

And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.' Israel doesn't 'consider' (lo-yamru le-levavam) - literally 'they don't say to their hearts.' They fail to internalize that God remembers all sin. 'Their doings have beset them' means their sins surround them - inescapable. 'Before my face' emphasizes God's omniscient witness. This describes self-deception - assuming God doesn't notice or care. Psalm 90:8 declares: 'You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.' Only Christ's atonement addresses sins God fully knows and remembers.

Historical Context

Israel's presumption that secret sins escaped divine notice proved false - judgment demonstrated God's complete awareness. Every hidden conspiracy, secret alliance, covert idol worship faced accountability. Modern parallel: assuming privacy or passage of time erases guilt. Yet Ecclesiastes 12:14 warns: 'God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing.' Only confession and Christ's cleansing blood addresses sins God remembers. His forgiveness means He 'remembers their sins no more' (Hebrews 8:12) - gracious divine amnesia contrasting with judicial memory.

Study Questions

1. What sins do I assume God doesn't notice or care about, failing to 'consider that He remembers'?
2. How does God's omniscient memory of sin drive me to Christ's atoning sacrifice and promise of divine forgiveness?
