

Hosea 9:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

Analysis

For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles. Prophecy of exile death: Egypt gathers (collects bodies), Memphis (Egyptian city) buries them. Pleasant places (homes) become overgrown with nettles and thorns - complete desolation. Reverses promised land blessings to curse imagery (Genesis 3:18, thorns/thistles). Only Christ removes curse, creating new creation where curse exists no more (Revelation 22:3).

Historical Context

Some Israelites fled to Egypt after Assyrian pressure (Jeremiah records similar Judean flight, Jeremiah 42-44). Many died there, buried in Memphis. Meanwhile, Israel became desolate - thorns overgrowing homes. Archaeological evidence shows 8th century abandonment of sites. This fulfilled covenant curse: enjoying others' labor, losing your own (Deuteronomy 28:30-33). Modern application: fleeing God's discipline into worldly refuge (Egypt) leads to death and loss. Only submitting to divine discipline brings restoration.

1. What Egypt's (worldly refuges) am I fleeing to instead of submitting to God's discipline?
2. How does imagery of pleasant places overtaken by thorns warn about consequences of abandoning God's ways?
