

Isaiah 1:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

Analysis

Four parallel descriptions intensify the portrait of Judah's corruption: sinful nation, people laden with iniquity, seed of evildoers, and corrupt children. The phrase 'Holy One of Israel' (qadosh Yisrael) appears 25 times in Isaiah, emphasizing God's transcendent purity in contrast to their defilement. The progressive verbs indicate complete apostasy: forsaken, provoked, and gone backward.

Historical Context

Despite outward religious observance, eighth-century Judah had absorbed Canaanite practices and social injustice, provoking divine judgment while trusting in political alliances rather than covenant faithfulness.
