

Isaiah 13:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

Analysis

Babylon, 'the glory of kingdoms' and 'beauty of the Chaldees' excellency,' will become like Sodom and Gomorrah—utterly destroyed. The comparison to Sodom emphasizes complete, permanent desolation. Babylon's magnificence—hanging gardens, massive walls, architectural wonders—would be reduced to ruins. What humanity considers glorious and excellent, God can reduce to ash. This warns against trusting in human achievement and glory apart from God.

Historical Context

Babylon's gradual decline after 539 BC led to complete abandonment. By medieval period, its location was uncertain. Modern archaeological ruins verify the prophesied desolation. What was once civilization's crown jewel became rubble. This fulfilled the Sodom comparison—permanent, complete destruction. The pattern repeats: human glory apart from God is temporary. Only God's kingdom and glory endure.
