

Isaiah 29:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

Analysis

The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD (וַיַּעֲשֶׂה עֲנָוִים בְּיַהְוָה שְׂמַחַת) veyasfu anavim baYHWH simchah)—the (עֲנָוִים anavim, meek, humble, afflicted) will (yasaf, increase, add, multiply) in (simchah, joy). And the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel (וְאֶבְיוֹנִים אָדָם בְּקָדוֹשׁ יִשְׂרָאֵל גִּילּוֹן) ve'evyoney adam biQdosh Yisrael yagilu)—the (אֶבְיוֹנִים evyonim, poor, needy) will (gil, rejoice, exult) in the (קדוש יִשְׂרָאֵל Qedosh Yisrael, Holy One of Israel).

Mary's Magnificat echoes this: 'He hath put down the mighty... exalted them of low degree' (Luke 1:52). Jesus's first Beatitude: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit' (Matthew 5:3). The Kingdom inverts worldly hierarchies—the meek inherit earth, the mourning are comforted, the hungry are filled. This isn't romanticizing poverty but recognizing that those without human resources most readily depend on God. The 'poor' Isaiah references are covenant faithful who trust Yahweh despite material lack. Their joy isn't circumstantial but rooted in the Holy One's character.

Historical Context

First-century Judaism divided between wealthy Sadducees (political collaborators) and poor masses. Jesus's ministry focused on the latter—'the poor have the gospel preached to them' (Matthew 11:5). James writes: 'Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith?' (James 2:5). The early church was predominantly poor and enslaved people (1 Corinthians 1:26-28), yet they possessed joy unspeakable.
