

Isaiah 30:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

Analysis

Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness (בְּזַבֵּר הַזֶּה/ma'as baddavar hazzeh)—The Hebrew verb ma'as means to reject with contempt, actively spurning God's prophetic word. Israel's sin was twofold: despising divine revelation while simultaneously trusting (בָּתָח/batach) in oppression (עֹשֵׂה/osheq)—extortion, exploitation of the weak—and perverseness (נָלוֹז/naloz)—crookedness, deviation from righteousness.

And stay thereon—they leaned their full weight (שָׁאֵן/sha'an) on political manipulation rather than God's promises. This indictment exposes the fundamental idolatry of trusting unjust systems while rejecting God's word, a pattern Jesus condemned in the Pharisees (Mark 7:13).

Historical Context

Isaiah prophesied during Judah's Assyrian crisis (701 BC), when King Hezekiah's officials sought Egyptian alliance instead of trusting God. The 'oppression and perverseness' likely refers to the political machinations and compromises required to secure Egypt's military support, including possible tribute payments and treaty obligations that violated covenant faithfulness.

Study Questions

1. What modern 'words of God' do you find yourself despising through inattention or selective hearing?
2. In what areas are you tempted to trust in human systems of power rather than God's promises?
3. How does political pragmatism today mirror Judah's trust in 'oppression and perverseness'?
