

Isaiah 37:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

Analysis

The recitation of conquered peoples—"Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, Eden, Telassar"—aims to overwhelm hope through accumulated evidence. The question "Have the gods of the nations delivered them?" again equates YHWH with powerless idols. Sennacherib fundamentally misunderstands that false gods have no existence (1 Corinthians 8:4), while YHWH is the living God who acts in history. The litany of failures proves nothing about what the true God will do.

Historical Context

These were real historical conquests. Gozan was in Upper Mesopotamia, Haran in northwest Mesopotamia, Rezeph in Syria. Eden (Beth-eden) and Telassar were Aramean territories.

Study Questions

1. How does multiplying examples of difficulty sometimes overwhelm faith rather than building it?
2. What is the fundamental difference between asking false gods for help versus the living God?
3. How do we maintain hope when facing accumulated evidence of human defeat?
