

Isaiah 40:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

Analysis

This verse presents the paradox of God's coming: He comes with strong authority ('his arm shall rule') yet with tender care (verse 11). The Hebrew 'chazaq' (strong) emphasizes His invincible power to accomplish redemption. His reward and work accompany Him—He brings both justice and blessing, having earned the right through His mighty acts.

Historical Context

This prophetically describes both Cyrus's decree (God's arm moving him to free Israel) and ultimately Christ's first coming in humility and second coming in power.
