

Isaiah 40:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Analysis

This prophecy foretells the ministry of John the Baptist, who would prepare the way for the Messiah. The imagery of preparing a highway in the desert for a coming king draws from ancient Near Eastern practice where roads were prepared for royal visits. Spiritually, this speaks to the need for repentance and spiritual preparation before encountering the Holy One. All four Gospels cite this verse in reference to John's ministry (Matthew 3:3, Mark 1:3, Luke 3:4, John 1:23).

Historical Context

While immediately addressing Israel's return from Babylonian exile, this prophecy reached its fullest expression in John the Baptist's preparatory ministry. John called people to repent and be baptized, making their hearts ready for Messiah. His message of repentance 'made straight' the path by removing obstacles of sin and unbelief. This pattern continues as the gospel must be preceded by conviction of sin and the need for salvation.

1. What 'crooked places' in your own heart need to be made straight to better receive Christ's work?
2. How does John's example of humble preparation challenge our approach to ministry and pointing others to Jesus?
