

Isaiah 42:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

Analysis

Those trusting in idols will be 'turned back' and 'greatly ashamed' (Hebrew 'bosh'—deep humiliation). The irony: saying to molten images 'Ye are our gods' exposes absurdity—addressing human creations as creators. Shame is the inevitable result when trust is misplaced in impotent objects.

Historical Context

When Babylon fell to Persia, the elaborate idol worship couldn't prevent defeat. Those who trusted in Marduk and Bel experienced the shame of false confidence, while Israel's God vindicated His power.
