

Isaiah 42:21

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable.

Analysis

Despite Israel's failure, 'the LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake'—His own righteousness, not theirs. He will 'magnify the law, and make it honourable' through His purposes. The Hebrew 'gadal' (magnify) suggests exalting and displaying the law's perfection, ultimately through Christ who fulfills it.

Historical Context

God's commitment to magnify His law meant that despite Israel's failure, He would uphold its requirements through Messiah's perfect obedience and substitutionary death, demonstrating both justice and mercy.
