

Isaiah 42:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

Analysis

Israel's condition is pitiable: 'robbed and spoiled,' trapped in holes and prisons, becoming prey without deliverance. The Hebrew 'bazaz' (spoiled/plundered) depicts total defeat. None says 'Restore'—no advocate, no hope from human sources. This desperate situation reveals the need for divine intervention.

Historical Context

This accurately describes the exile's reality—Israel plundered, scattered, imprisoned in foreign lands without human hope of restoration. Only God could reverse this catastrophic condition.
