

Isaiah 43:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

Analysis

God's threefold testimony: 'I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed'—comprehensive revelation and action. The conclusion: 'ye are my witnesses...that I am God.' The Hebrew 'nagad' (declared), 'yasha' (saved), and 'shama' (shewed/announced) cover word and deed, promise and fulfillment.

Historical Context

This appeals to Israel's experience: God predicted deliverances, accomplished them, then revealed their meaning. This pattern of declaration-fulfillment-explanation distinguishes Him from false gods.
