

Isaiah 43:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

Analysis

Israel bought God no sweet cane (incense) or filled Him with sacrifice fat, yet burdened Him with sins and wearied Him with iniquities. The Hebrew 'abad' (serve/make to serve) used ironically—they made God serve their sins rather than serving Him! The role reversal is striking and offensive.

Historical Context

This devastating indictment shows Israel inverted the proper relationship—instead of serving God, they made Him deal with their sins. Their persistent rebellion became God's burden, requiring His intervention.
