

Isaiah 44:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

Analysis

God addresses Israel as 'my servant' and 'Jeshurun' (meaning 'upright one'), terms of endearment despite their unfaithfulness. The Hebrew 'bachar' (chosen) emphasizes God's sovereign election that precedes human response. This call to hear echoes Deuteronomy's covenantal language, reminding Israel that their relationship with God rests on His initiative, not their merit.

Historical Context

Following warnings about spiritual blindness (43:8), God reassures His chosen people. The name Jeshurun appears only four times in Scripture (Deuteronomy 32:15, 33:5, 33:26, here), always as an affectionate title for Israel, contrasting their failures with their calling.
