

Isaiah 45:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker,
Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me.

Analysis

---

God identifies Himself as 'the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker' before challenging: 'Ask me of things to come...command ye me.' The Hebrew 'tsavah' (command) seems shocking - can creatures command God? Yet the context suggests asking about God's work with His 'sons' and the 'work of my hands.' Faith can boldly ask God about His promises.

Historical Context

Rather than questioning God's methods (verse 9-10), Isaiah encourages asking about God's revealed purposes. There's a difference between presumptuous challenging and faithful inquiry.

Related Passages

Ephesians 2:8 — Salvation by grace through faith

Romans 10:9 — Confession and belief for salvation

Study Questions

---

1. What is the difference between questioning God's wisdom and asking about His promises?

2. How can you boldly approach God in faith about His declared purposes?
