

Isaiah 46:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

Analysis

The declaration 'I bring near my righteousness' reveals that salvation comes by God's approaching initiative, not human ascent. The parallel 'my salvation shall not tarry' assures that God's timing, though mysterious, is never truly delayed. The promise to 'place salvation in Zion' ultimately points to Christ as God's righteousness given to believers (1 Corinthians 1:30).

Historical Context

This immediate fulfillment came through Cyrus's decree, but ultimate fulfillment awaited Christ. The 'salvation in Zion' began with post-exilic restoration but consummates in New Jerusalem (Revelation 21:2).
