

Isaiah 48:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

Analysis

God's forbearance 'for my name's sake' and 'for my praise' reveals that covenant maintenance ultimately serves divine glory, not human merit. The 'refining' of verse 10 ('I have refined thee, but not with silver') means God's discipline purifies but doesn't consume His people. This anticipates 1 Peter 1:7's 'trial of your faith' producing glory at Christ's appearing.

Historical Context

Despite Israel's unfaithfulness, God maintained covenant relationship because His reputation was tied to Israel's fate (Ezekiel 36:22). His 'name's sake' concern shows that divine glory, not human worth, grounds salvation.
