

Isaiah 49:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

Analysis

The imagery of God making the Servant's mouth 'like a sharp sword' and hiding Him 'in the shadow of his hand' depicts both authority and protection. The 'polished shaft' (arrow) kept in a quiver ready for deployment shows God's strategic timing. Christ's words pierced hearts (Hebrews 4:12) and will judge nations (Revelation 19:15), while His hidden years (age 12-30) were divine preparation.

Historical Context

Isaiah's own ministry (740-681 BC) involved sharp prophetic words and periods of hiddenness (8:16-18). But the language transcends any single prophet, pointing to Messiah whose words have unique authority and whose mission was temporally concealed until 'fullness of time' (Galatians 4:4).
