

Isaiah 5:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

Analysis

Isaiah introduces the 'Song of the Vineyard,' a prophetic parable about God's relationship with Israel. The 'beloved' is Yahweh, and Isaiah acts as God's spokesman singing this love song. The vineyard in 'a very fruitful hill' represents the ideal conditions God provided Israel—choice land, covenant relationship, and divine care. This introduction sets up the devastating indictment that follows.

Historical Context

Vineyards required years of cultivation and care in ancient Israel. The audience would understand the investment and expectations associated with vineyard ownership, making the parable's impact powerful.
