

Isaiah 51:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

Analysis

The cosmic vision 'the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment' establishes creation's temporality versus God's eternal salvation. The contrast 'my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished' shows that God's spiritual work outlasts physical creation. This grounds hope in eternal realities, not temporal circumstances (2 Corinthians 4:18).

Historical Context

Peter quotes this in 2 Peter 3:10-13, describing new heavens and earth. The transience of current creation should relativize earthly concerns and heighten focus on eternal salvation that 'shall not be abolished.'
