

Isaiah 52:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Analysis

The image 'The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations' depicts God rolling up His sleeve for action, publicly displaying power before watching world. The result 'all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God' shows that Israel's redemption serves as testimony to all peoples. God's mighty acts aren't private but public demonstrations of His character and power.

Historical Context

Cyrus's decree allowing Jewish return was international news, displaying God's sovereignty over empires. Ultimately, Christ's resurrection and gospel spread to 'ends of the earth' fulfill this - salvation is publicly, globally demonstrated, not hidden.

Related Passages

Ephesians 2:8 — Salvation by grace through faith

Romans 10:9 — Confession and belief for salvation

Study Questions

1. How should knowing that God's salvation is meant to be seen by 'all nations' affect your public witness?
2. What does God's 'bare arm' (exposed power) in your life testify about Him to watching unbelievers?
