

Isaiah 52:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

Analysis

The promise 'Therefore my people shall know my name' indicates that deliverance reveals God's character. The emphatic 'therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I' stresses personal divine intervention - not impersonal fate but covenant God acting. The 'behold, it is I' echoes Jesus' 'ego eimi' (I AM) statements, revealing divine self-disclosure through saving acts.

Historical Context

Exiles questioned whether God could or would save them. The deliverance through Cyrus revealed God's continued covenant commitment. Ultimately, Christ's incarnation and resurrection perfectly fulfill this promise - 'behold, it is I' standing among His people.
