

Isaiah 54:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

Analysis

The promise 'No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper' doesn't guarantee no attacks, but guarantees ultimate victory over all opposition. The assurance 'every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn' promises vindication against accusers. The declaration 'This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD' establishes these promises as covenant inheritance for all believers.

Historical Context

Israel faced military (weapons) and legal (tongues in judgment) attacks throughout history. God promised that while attacks would come, they ultimately wouldn't succeed. The church inherits this promise - gates of hell won't prevail (Matthew 16:18).

Study Questions

1. What 'weapons formed against you' (opposition, attacks, trials) must you trust will ultimately 'not prosper'?
2. How does knowing vindication is your 'heritage' from God sustain you through present accusations?
