

Isaiah 59:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

Analysis

God arms Himself as a warrior: 'For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.' Paul applies this armor to believers in Ephesians 6:14-17, but here God wears it. Righteousness protects, salvation guards, vengeance and zeal motivate action.

Historical Context

The divine warrior tradition appears throughout the Old Testament (Exodus 15, Judges 5, Habakkuk 3). God fights for His people when they cannot fight for themselves.

Study Questions

1. How does God wearing this armor differ from believers wearing it (Ephesians 6)?

2. What does divine 'zeal' look like in action?
