

Isaiah 6:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

Analysis

The seraphim ('burning ones') serve around God's throne, each with six wings: two covering their face (reverence before divine glory), two covering their feet (humility/modesty), and two for flying (readiness to serve). Even these holy beings cannot gaze directly upon God's glory, demonstrating His transcendent holiness. Their position 'above' the throne suggests service rather than equality—even highest creatures worship the Creator.

Historical Context

Seraphim appear only here in Scripture, though similar beings appear in Ezekiel 1 and Revelation 4. Ancient Near Eastern winged beings often flanked thrones, but these serve Yahweh alone, distinguishing Him from pagan deities.
