

Isaiah 62:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make
Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

Analysis

'And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.' The bold call continues: give God 'no rest' through persistent prayer until He acts. This is holy persistence, not irreverence - God invites such tenacity. The Hebrew 'domiy' (rest/silence) is to be denied God through unceasing intercession.

Historical Context

Jesus taught similar persistence in the parable of the persistent widow (Luke 18:1-8). God is pleased by faith that will not let go until blessing comes.
