

Isaiah 64:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

Analysis

'Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence.' This passionate prayer continues from chapter 63. The Hebrew 'qara' (rend/tear) expresses violent breaking through. 'Come down' (yarad) requests theophany - divine appearance. Mountains flowing recalls Sinai's trembling (Exodus 19:18).

Historical Context

This prayer for divine intervention echoes Israel's Sinai experience and anticipates the incarnation when God did 'come down.' It expresses the longing of every generation for fresh divine action.
