

Isaiah 64:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.

Analysis

'Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.' The concrete reality of judgment: holy cities ('arei qodsheka' - plural, referring to all significant places) have become wilderness. Zion and Jerusalem specifically named are 'desolation' (shemamah - horror, devastation). Physical reality matches spiritual condition.

Historical Context

This describes the devastation following Babylon's destruction in 586 BC. The 'holy cities' reduced to wilderness made the need for restoration concrete and urgent.
