

Isaiah 7:20

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

Analysis

The metaphor of the LORD hiring 'a razor...by them beyond the river...the king of Assyria' to shave Judah's head, beard, and feet depicts total humiliation. Shaving head and beard symbolized disgrace and mourning (2 Samuel 10:4-5); feet may be euphemism for genitals, suggesting complete nakedness and shame. Assyria, Judah's chosen ally (Ahaz's decision), becomes God's instrument of judgment—ultimate irony. This demonstrates that what we trust in apart from God becomes our undoing.

Historical Context

Sennacherib's invasion (701 BC) devastated Judah, conquering 46 cities and besieging Jerusalem. The 'hired razor' metaphor proved grimly accurate as Assyria ravaged the land.

Study Questions

1. How does the imagery of total shaving communicate the completeness of judgment's humiliation?
2. What resources or alliances do we 'hire' that God may use as instruments of discipline?
