

James 5:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

Analysis

Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. Come now, you rich, weep and howl (ololuzete, ὀλούζετε) for miseries coming upon you. James issues prophetic woe against oppressive wealthy elites. Their judgment is imminent.

Reformed prophetic witness confronts systemic injustice. Wealth hoarded at others' expense will draw God's wrath.

Historical Context

Rich landowners in Judea and throughout the empire exploited day laborers. James echoes prophets like Amos, warning that divine judgment looms over unrepentant elites.
