

James 5:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

Analysis

Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door. Do not grumble (stenazete, στενάζετε) against one another lest you be judged; the Judge stands at the door. Internal complaints invite divine scrutiny.

Reformed community life values unity. James links eschatology with ethics: awareness of Christ's impending arrival restrains murmuring.

Historical Context

---

Persecution created pressure-cooker environments where believers turned on each other. James addresses this, similar to Paul's command in Philippians 2:14.

Related Passages

---

Romans 1:17 — The righteous shall live by faith

Hebrews 11:1 — Definition of faith

Psalms 19:1 — Heavens declare God's glory

Colossians 1:16 — All things created through Christ

Study Questions

---

1. Who are you tempted to grumble about, and why?
2. How can Christ's nearness restrain complaint?
3. What constructive actions can replace grumbling?
