

Jeremiah 13:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

Analysis

---

This verse reports obedience: 'So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.' The Hebrew phrase kidbar YHWH (כִּדְּבַר יְהוָה, according to the word of the LORD) indicates exact obedience. Jeremiah acquired and wore the garment as commanded. The unwashed girdle against skin for extended time would become dirty, sweaty, clinging—representing intimate relationship now corrupted. The prophet's body becomes message medium; his daily wearing demonstrates the teaching.

Historical Context

Prophetic obedience to strange commands demonstrated trust and submission. These actions often cost prophets dignity and comfort (Isaiah's nakedness, Ezekiel's cooking over dung). Jeremiah wearing an unwashed undergarment for extended period would attract notice and questions, creating teaching opportunities. The discomfort of the act paralleled the discomfort of the message.
