

Jeremiah 16:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

Analysis

The reason for thorough judgment: 'For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.' God's omniscience means comprehensive knowledge of all sins. The threefold emphasis (eyes upon ways, not hid from face, iniquity not hid from eyes) stresses divine awareness of all wrongdoing. This establishes accountability—no sin escapes divine notice. The phrase 'all their ways' indicates God observes total conduct, not just religious activities. This verse grounds judgment in God's perfect knowledge: He judges based on complete evidence, missing nothing. The Reformed doctrine of divine omniscience means accountability is absolute and inescapable.

Historical Context

Though Judah attempted to hide idolatrous practices or claimed innocence, God's perfect knowledge of all their ways meant judgment would be based on complete evidence with no possibility of concealment.
