

Jeremiah 16:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

Analysis

The theological reason given: 'For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.' The comprehensive silencing of joy ('mirth,' 'gladness,' wedding celebrations) will occur 'in your eyes' (they will witness it) and 'in your days' (during their lifetime). Wedding imagery particularly symbolizes hope and new beginnings—its cessation indicates hopelessness. The four voices (mirth, gladness, bridegroom, bride) represent the full spectrum of human joy. God will 'cause to cease' all of them, demonstrating His sovereign control over human experience. Judgment means joy's death.

Historical Context

The Babylonian exile resulted in Jerusalem's depopulation and Judah's desolation. For 70 years, the sounds of celebration were absent from the land, fulfilling this prophecy literally.
